

*Jesus – Jewish Prophet,
Messiah, and Savior
Session 6
Wed. February 7 2018*

The Real Face of Jesus (Part Two)

This image is an overlay of the Shroud of Turin and the Icon of Jesus' Face (called the Pantocrator). Within the decade of the discovery in the city of Edessa of a cloth with an image believed to be of Jesus, an icon was created at St. Catherine's Monastery in the Sinai. The year the cloth was found was A.D. 544. The icon is from about 550.

The similarities between the Pantocrator icon and the image on the Shroud of Turin are startling. It is too significant to be coincidental. The location of facial features including eyes, nose and mouth are astounding. When a transparency of the Shroud face is placed over a photograph of the icon, they align perfectly.
