The Real Face of Jesus? – (Part 1)

The Shroud of Turin is a long linen cloth made of out flax and measures 14 feet long and 3.5 feet wide. It bears the faint image of a bearded, crucified man with bloodstains that match the wounds of crucifixion suffered by Jesus of Nazareth as recorded in all four gospel narratives. It has been in Turin, Italy since 1578, for almost 500 years. It has been preserved and revered for centuries as the actual burial shroud that wrapped Jesus as recorded in the bible.

Fact or Fiction? Science cannot render a verdict. It remains the world's greatest unsolved mystery. "It is either the most awesome and instructive relic of Christ in existence or it is one of the most ingenious, most unbelievably clever products of the human mind and hand on record. It is either one or the other, there is no middle ground. Historian John Walsh
