Did You Know?

Did you know that the parish grounds for St. Monica's consists of about twenty acres of land?

One Liner

{ YOU DID IT FOR ME. }

The 2017 Catholic Charities Annual Appeal begins in each parish this weekend! This year's appeal theme is You Did it for Me. In Matthew's gospel, Jesus states, "Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for the least among us, you did it for me" With your help, we are able to feed the hungry, take care of the sick, and welcome the stranger, just as Jesus has asked us to do. How will we respond as a community of faith?

As in the past, an in-pew commitment process will take place next weekend, February 11-12. All who have not received the mailing from Bishop Thomas, or have not had a chance to respond to it, will be asked to consider making a generous pledge to support the ministries and services provided by Catholic Charities. If you have received the mailing, please respond to it. There is a box on the in -pew envelope to indicate that you have responded by mail. We invite you to view the stories of inspiration and more information at www.catholiccommunity.org/2017Appeal.

Pastoral Scene

Not Feeling "Ready"

Were you ever in a situation where you really wanted to do a task but looked away (or checked out the lint on your clothing J) rather than take the chance to volunteer? Your refusal was not that you thought you couldn't do the task but was more a feeling that you "were just not ready" to take on that responsibility. That 'not being ready' feeling often comes up when the Gospels talk about discipleship and being perfect in the eyes of God. Often, just managing the human side of life is overwhelming enough without adding the spiritual dimension!

Luke's Gospel tells us that Jesus spent the night in prayer before he went out to call his special twelve. Because of that action and the content of their lives, I always believed Jesus chose the apostles because of their abilities at the beginning of their journey. Rather, as I came to learn, Jesus called twelve very ordinary men who were flawed – lacking openness, commitment, awareness, vision, honesty, loyalty, or courage. Jesus called twelve flawed men who were willing – and because of their willingness, Jesus was able to make them ready.

Each of us is called to be a disciple of Jesus Christ and by that call, to become a saint. But how does someone do that when he or she find themselves raising children, working at home and outside of it, paying the bills, cooking the meals, getting children and adults to appointments, and often shouldering a whole series of responsibilities to see that his or her little corner of the world keeps on running smoothly? How do you become 'a Mary' when life demands you be 'a Martha'? The very thought is overwhelming!

In the Gospels Jesus gave us four important strategies that he embodied in his life and taught his disciples to practice in theirs to help them become 'ready'. These strategies are as follows:

Private prayer and personal integrity – In the Gospels, fidelity to keeping the Commandments is one of the major criteria to measure if our private prayer is real. Our prayer is honest only when our lives back it up.

Working for Charity and Justice – We give directly to the poor to help alleviate poverty and also work for justice to correct the circumstances that helped to create that poverty.

Being a disciple of Jesus always demands connection with a Church community – staying home and praying is not enough!

Last but not least, doing the right things for the right reason – with a mellow and grateful heart and no ulterior motives.

A good way to know where we are in our discipleship journey is to answer the following question honestly:

If, like the early Christians you and I were brought into a court and accused of being a Christian, would there be enough evidence in our lives to convict us?

Pondering that answer in my life as well --- Sister Helene

The students of St. Benedict Catholic School Student Council continues to focus on service projects and fundraising for local charities. On January 25th, the Student Council sponsored a dress down day to raise money to buy blankets for the homeless. As a school community we raised over $500 to purchase blankets. The blankets will get distributed through the St. Ignatius High School Labre ministry. Some of the students participated in making peanut butter and jelly sandwiches for the homeless. We will continue to help make sandwiches monthly for the rest of the school year.
