Pastoral Scene

Easter Blessings friends. The isolation and changes in our lives resulting from the global pandemic and how we have faced these challenges will be talked about for centuries.

On Easter Sunday, we celebrate a time in history that shook up the world, the story spread throughout the land, it became a movement, a new way of Life, Our Risen Savior, Christ the Lord. There would have been numerous opinions, theories, and questions on this event. But for all the divergent theories- those who came to believe were transformed through the reality that God sent his Son to die for the salvation of Humanity. To say that we need to strengthen our Church is an understatement; it will involve an unwavering resolve to live as courageous witnesses, working in an increasingly secular society that is deaf and blind to the Light of the World.

Enjoy this reflection from Dr Scott Hahn that he wrote during the height of the pandemic.

“In the topsy-turviness of that time, ordinary things suddenly stood out for me in striking ways. When the news stories were at their most somber, I was moved to pray, and I heard the familiar phrases of the basic prayers as if they had just been uttered for the first time.

“Now and at the hour of our death,” I said, and it could very well have been my millionth “Hail Mary.” But now each recitation had an immediacy I had never noticed before.

What was unusual this year was the sustained, universal focus on our mortality — and not just “ours” collectively, but yours and mine specifically. It was one thing to watch the charts with their exponential numbers and curves. It was quite another to feel a twinge when suddenly surprised by a sneeze or a cough.

“Now and at the hour of our death” is a strange phrase because it acknowledges what’s inevitable for us, our earthly end, and brings it into sharp focus—more than fifty times in a typical Rosary.

Our Lord wants us to be people of hope amid widespread despair. We show—with our lives and everyday kindnesses—that the grace of resurrection is not something far off in the future.

Pastoral Scene continued

The Mystical Body of Christ, unlike the body politic, is alive and thriving, as I believe the recent crisis has shown us.”

Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI, who left this earth on Dec 31st, 2022, wrote a profound encyclical titled Spe Salvi in 2007. It is centered on the theological virtue of hope.

The encyclical closes with a reflection on our Mother, who leads us to hope through her yes in following God’s Will to carry our Salvation in her womb.

The joy of the Resurrection touched your heart and united you in a new way to the disciples, destined to become the family of Jesus through faith. In this way you were in the midst of the community of believers, who in the days following the Ascension prayed with one voice for the gift of the Holy Spirit (cf. Acts 1:14) and then received that gift on the day of Pentecost. The “Kingdom” of Jesus was not as might have been imagined. It began in that hour, and of this “Kingdom” there will be no end.

Thus you remain in the midst of the disciples as their Mother, as the Mother of hope. Holy Mary, Mother of God, our Mother, teach us to believe, to hope, to love with you. Show us the way to his Kingdom! Star of the Sea, shine upon us and guide us on our way!

On behalf of our Parish and school staff and families- We send our love and prayers that the Light of our Risen Lord will shine on your family and bring all the faithful to know in our hearts that In Christ we are saved. Easter Blessings!

Divine Mercy Sunday

16 April 2023

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Divine Mercy Chaplet and Benediction following the 10:45 a.m. Liturgy.

On the Second Sunday of Easter of the Jubilee Year 2000, at the Mass for the Canonization of St. Faustina Kowalska, Pope John Paul II proclaimed to the world that “from now on throughout the Church” this Sunday will be called “Divine Mercy Sunday”. The Church’s doctrine of Divine Mercy, and her liturgical practices are not based on St. Faustina’s revelations: they are based on Holy Scripture, the faith handed down by the apostles, and on liturgical traditions rooted in the worship life of the ancient, apostolic communities.

Why did the Pope so strongly recommend that we pay heed to the Divine Mercy message and devotion? Because he saw all this as more than just a collection of “private revelations”; rather, he saw them as prophetic revelations, in other words, revelations given to us by God to proclaim the heart of the Gospel – the merciful love of God shining through the death, burial, and resurrection of his Son.

The Chaplet of Divine Mercy is an intercessory prayer based on the Passion of Christ, and the Image of Divine Mercy (before which the Novena is usually recited) is primarily a manifestation of the Risen Christ. Therefore, the Novena of Chaplets (with the Image) focuses our minds and hearts on the Paschal Mystery – the death and resurrection of Christ. Nothing could be more appropriate at this time in the liturgical year!

Thus, to fittingly observe the Feast of Divine Mercy, we should: (1) Celebrate the Feast on the Sunday after Easter; (2) Sincerely repent of all our sins; (3) Place our complete trust in Jesus; (4) Go to Confession, preferably before that Sunday; (5) Receive Holy Communion on the day of the Feast; (6) Venerate* the Image of The Divine Mercy; and (7) Be merciful to others, through our actions, words, and prayers on their behalf.

*To venerate a sacred image of statue simply means to perform some act of make some gesture of deep religious respect toward it because of the person whom it represents – in this case, our Most Merciful Savior.

ENTRANCE CHANT 401 Jesus Christ Is Risen Today

FIRST READING Acts 10:34a, 37-43

Peter proceeded to speak and said: “You know what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree. This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness, that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name.”

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 118:1-2, 16-17, 22-23

R. (24) This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good,
for his mercy endures forever.
Let the house of Israel say,
“His mercy endures forever.”

R. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

“The right hand of the LORD has struck with power;
the right hand of the LORD is exalted.
I shall not die, but live,
and declare the works of the LORD.”

R. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.
By the LORD has this been done;
it is wonderful in our eyes.

R. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

SECOND READING Colossians 3:1-4

Brothers and sisters: If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

Sequence

GOSPEL John 20:1-9

On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, “They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don’t know where they put him.” So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.
