Pastoral Scene

YOU Feed Them

The “Feeding of the Five Thousand” is the only miracle that appears in each of the four Gospels in the New Testament and must have been a very important story in the early Church. Despite four tellings, the facts of the miracle remain intact.

The setting of the miracle was the sloping grassy hill that overlooked The Bay of Parables, and its rocky, multi-soil cover that stretched into the shore. It was no wonder that the Apostles asked Jesus to send people to near-by villages for food, since this desolate place had nothing resembling edible food.

Then Jesus placed the problem directly in the Apostles’ hands saying, “They need not go away; you give them something to eat.” Five loaves and two fish were all that could be found, but to feed five thousand men besides women and children seemed an impossible task. Why, then, would Jesus ask for the help of the Apostles for in doing what seemed impossible when He could have performed a miracle on His own?

As this story reminds us, Jesus did not act alone! Jesus did not gather the loaves and fishes, multiply the loaves and fishes, and distribute all that food to the people on His own, Jesus took what the Apostles could find and bring to Him, which He then blessed, broke, and gave back to them to distribute to the crowd. Why?

Perhaps rather than seeing the miracle, they needed to begin to participate in a miracle!

Did you ever wonder if the Apostles were just sitting in the crowd, waiting for God to act, and hanging on to their own lunches, before Jesus said, “Bring what you have to me.” Whatever they had, or like Andrew (who probably did not pack a lunch) found a little boy who had five barley loaves and two dried fish, Jesus received. What they presented to Jesus was the ‘seed’ for the start of a miracle so important that all four Gospel writers had to share it!

This miracle is really a story about discipleship.

Jesus did not act alone – he asked his disciples to bring them what they could find. After their offerings were blessed and broken, Jesus

HOLY LAND GIFTS

After all Masses on May 6th and 7th

There will be a display of handmade articles for sale such as nativity scenes, Crucifixes, rosaries, and many other beautiful religious items.

Because of conflict in the region, many Christian families in Bethlehem are struggling to make ends meet.

When you purchase one of these beautiful gifts, you are helping artisans in the Holy Land provide for their families who live and work with dignity in the region fraught with tension.

Thank you for supporting this project to keep the Christians present in the Holy Land

Visit GiftsofJerusalem.com for additional information and items.

Saint Monica Parish proudly announces that the following teenagers became fully initiated Catholics through their Confirmation on Sunday, April 23. Please congratulate them when you see them and pray that they will always remain faithful to their Catholic Faith!

gave all back to them so that they could distribute it to the crowd. What they had was enough to satisfy everyone – and there were even leftovers!

Discipleship involves giving those we work with 'something to eat' spiritually or physically. We may think the loaves we offer seem like nothing, our talents insufficient, our time or money lacking, and our abilities too weak for participating in a miracle. Each of us can be used by God to perform the miracle of feeding his sheep, both physically and spiritually.

I have a question for each of us to reflect on this week: Where do I start to bring my five loaves and two fish to God – so that I might begin to participate in a miracle? Ask me next week what my miracle was!

ENTRANCE CHANT 566 Holy God, We Praise Thy Name

FIRST READING Acts 2:14a, 36-41

Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice, and proclaimed: "Let the whole house of Israel know for certain that God has made both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified."

Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart, and they asked Peter and the other apostles, "What are we to do, my brothers?" Peter said to them, "Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is made to you and to your children and to all those far off, whomever the Lord our God will call." He testified with many other arguments, and was exhorting them, "Save yourselves from this corrupt generation." Those who accepted his message were baptized, and about three thousand persons were added that day.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 23:1-6

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
In verdant pastures he gives me repose;
beside restful waters he leads me;
he refreshes my soul.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

He guides me in right paths
for his name's sake.
Even though I walk in the dark valley
I fear no evil; for you are at my side.
With your rod and your staff
that give me courage.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

You spread the table before me
in the sight of my foes;
you anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Only goodness and kindness follow me
all the days of my life;
and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD
for years to come.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

SECOND READING 1 Peter 2:20b-25

Beloved: If you are patient when you suffer for doing what is good, this is a grace before God. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example that you should follow in his footsteps.

He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in his mouth.

When he was insulted, he returned no insult; when he suffered, he did not threaten; instead, he handed himself over to the one who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body upon the cross, so that, free from sin, we might live for righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. For you had gone astray like sheep, but you have now returned to the shepherd and guardian of your souls.

GOSPEL John 10:1-10

Jesus said: "Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever does not enter a sheepfold through the gate but climbs over elsewhere is a thief and a robber. But whoever enters through the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens it for him, and the sheep hear his voice, as the shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has driven out all his own, he walks ahead of them, and the sheep follow him, because they recognize his voice. But they will not follow a stranger; they will run away from him, because they do not recognize the voice of strangers." Although Jesus used this figure of speech, the Pharisees did not realize what he was trying to tell them.

So Jesus said again, "Amen, amen, I say to you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters through me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture. A thief comes only to steal and slaughter and destroy; I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly."
