Be a Missionary 2023

Today we celebrate World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly. I am reminded of my grandfather when I told him about my intention to study for the priesthood. His response to me was: "Grandson, become a missionary!" I was a bit surprised at his remark because my image of becoming a missionary was to travel to some far away land. As I entered the seminary and began my studies, I realized the missionary call was in following the call to the priesthood. More so, the call to be a missionary comes with the Sacrament of Baptism.

To be a missionary means to "evangelize", that is, to teach the good News of Jesus Christ when convenient and inconvenient. In reading about the Russian people during the time of the Soviet regime, the faith was kept alive through the elderly, especially the grandmothers, who would quietly have their grandchildren baptized and teach them about faith in Jesus Christ. In this quiet way, the faith in Christ was kept alive during those turbulent times. I am sure that their example can be applied to our present day.

Since many of you are limited in your travel, know that your example and your piety have an affect on your family and those who care for you. The number of times I hear that your prayers are being offered for others and your asking for prayers, humble me in my ministry as a Catholic Priest.

Being a "missionary" and spreading the message of Jesus takes many forms. I would like to commend to your prayers, the women and men who work behind the scenes preparing for Masses here at St. Monica. Their dedication has been a part of the Ministry of the Parish.

May your summer be peaceful and full of God's love.

16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Entrance Chant     659    Open My Eyes

First Reading     Wisdom 12:13, 16-19

There is no god besides you who have the care of all,
that you need show you have not unjustly condemned.
For your might is the source of justice;
your mastery over all things makes you lenient to all.
For you show your might when the perfection of your power is disbelieved;
and in those who know you, you rebuke temerity.
But though you are master of might, you judge with clemency,
and with much lenience you govern us;
for power, whenever you will, attends you.
And you taught your people, by these deeds,
that those who are just must be kind;
and you gave your children good ground for hope that you would permit repentance for their sins.

The Responsorial Psalm     Psalm 86:5-6, 9-10, 15-16

R. Lord, you are good and forgiving.

You, O LORD, are good and forgiving,
abounding in kindness to all who call upon you.
Hearken, O LORD, to my prayer
and attend to the sound of my pleading.

R. Lord, you are good and forgiving.

All the nations you have made shall come
and worship you, O LORD,
and glorify your name.
For you are great, and you do wondrous deeds;
you alone are God.

R. Lord, you are good and forgiving.

You, O LORD, are a God merciful and gracious,
slow to anger, abounding in kindness and fidelity.
Turn toward me, and have pity on me;
give your strength to your servant.

R. Lord, you are good and forgiving.

Second Reading     Romans 8:26-27

Brothers and sisters: The Spirit comes to the aid of our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes with inexpressible groanings. And the one who searches hearts knows what is the intention of the Spirit, because he intercedes for the holy ones according to God's will.

Gospel Matthew 13:24-43

Jesus proposed another parable to the crowds, saying: "The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field. While everyone was asleep his enemy came and sowed weeds all through the wheat, and then went off. When the crop grew and bore fruit, the weeds appeared as well. The slaves of the householder came to him and said, 'Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? Where have the weeds come from?' He answered, 'An enemy has done this.' His slaves said to him, 'Do you want us to go and pull them up?' He replied, 'No, if you pull up the weeds you might uproot the wheat along with them. Let them grow together until harvest; then at harvest time I will say to the harvesters, "First collect the weeds and tie them in bundles for burning; but gather the wheat into my barn."'"

He proposed another parable to them. "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that a person took and sowed in a field. It is the smallest of all the seeds, yet when full-grown it is the largest of plants. It becomes a large bush, and the 'birds of the sky come and dwell in its branches.'"

He spoke to them another parable. "The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed with three measures of wheat flour until the whole batch was leavened."

All these things Jesus spoke to the crowds in parables. He spoke to them only in parables, to fulfill what had been said through the prophet:

I will open my mouth in parables,

I will announce what has lain hidden from the foundation of the world.

Then, dismissing the crowds, he went into the house. His disciples approached him and said, "Explain to us the parable of the weeds in the field." He said in reply, "He who sows good seed is the Son of Man, the field is the world, the good seed the children of the kingdom. The weeds are the children of the evil one, and the enemy who sows them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the age, and the harvesters are angels. Just as weeds are collected and burned up with fire, so will it be at the end of the age. The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will collect out of his kingdom all who cause others to sin and all evildoers. They will throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth. Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Whoever has ears ought to hear."

Communion Chant Lord, I Am Not Worthy

Lord, I am not wor- thy, Lord, I am not wor- thy that you should en- ter un- der my roof. On- ly say the word, Refrain text: Matthew 8:8, Lord, I am not worthy. Words & Music: © 2022, Fr. Joe Menkhaus, Fr. Connor Hetzel, Monica Menkhaus, Max Menkhaus.

Gathered at the altar of our God and King, we present ourselves. We are wounded sinners in need of grace; you restore our health.

As we eat your flesh sacrificed for us, we are made strong. As we drink your blood poured out for us, we are washed clean.

Body, blood, and soul and divinity, You give as gift to us. Now we become You whom we receive; In You we place our trust.
