Pastoral Scene

Dear friends in Christ:

As the opportunity to vote on Issue 1 soon approaches, we are encouraged to review the details, so that we make an informed decision guided by our Catholic teachings and belief in the sanctity of life, from conception to Natural Death. I would like to extend my thanks to a team of volunteers who have taken on the task of redesigning the parish bulletin and website.

The Gospel is a great connection to our Christian journey, asking the question, what do we see as the treasures in our life?

We can say there is a treasure hunter in all of us. We are excited when we get that unique prize- that rare find- We see that in many areas of society- garage sales, flea markets, etc. For my first assignment I lived in Litchfield Township west of Medina. There was a large flea market down the road from the church. I know there were more people that visited the market than attended church, both Sat and Sunday combined, maybe looking for that one treasure that would make them rich. Have you ever watched the antiques road show? - when a person's eyes light up when they are told the piece they brought in is worth $$$.

Jesus compares the Kingdom of Heaven to a treasure buried in a field. Faith introduces us to God's Kingdom- faith comes from God- it is the lens in which we see the world.

Faith opens us to the unimaginable gift of conversing with God. What am I searching for in life? - what do I treasure the most? Is belonging to the Kingdom of God my great prize? The treasure I would give everything up for.

Deacon Greg Kandra offered an interesting insight on this Gospel from the perspective of a litmus test: "Everything we seek does not always lead us to the kingdom revealed in Jesus.

Thus, we need some guidance for discerning what is of passing value and what is that pearl of great price. The first reading gives us something of that litmus test. Solomon did not act in his self-interest. He did not ask for earthly riches. Nor did he seek revenge or violence against enemies.

Rather, he asks for an understanding heart. God's understanding heart is fully revealed in Jesus' own sacred heart.

A heart that communicated love for the stranger, respect for the marginalized, and justice for the outcasts. Today we also pray for understanding hearts, that together we too might further God's reign in our lives and in the world."

WHY ARE WE VOTING ON ISSUE 1 ON AUGUST 8TH?

Issue 1 Helps Protect 30,000 children every year.

Abortion advocates are trying to put painful, late-term abortion up to birth, without parental consent, in our Ohio Constitution. Issue 1 makes it more difficult for this dangerous and deadly proposal to be inserted into our Constitution by:

- Requiring 60% of voters to approve changes to the state constitution.
- Ensuring that all 88 counties have representation in the constitutional amendment process instead of the current 44.
- Ensuring that signatures to change the constitution are submitted on and not after the deadline.

If Issue 1 fails, an estimated 30,000 children will lose their lives at the hands of the abortion industry in Ohio every year.

Issue 1 is crucial in protecting the children whose lives are at risk. Issue 1 will save 30,000 children each year if it passes.

Entrance Chant 687 How Can I Keep from Singing

First Reading 1 Kings 3:5, 7-12

The LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream at night. God said, "Ask something of me and I will give it to you." Solomon answered: "O LORD, my God, you have made me, your servant, king to succeed my father David; but I am a mere youth, not knowing at all how to act. I serve you in the midst of the people whom you have chosen, a people so vast that it cannot be numbered or counted. Give your servant, therefore, an understanding heart to judge your people and to distinguish right from wrong. For who is able to govern this vast people of yours?"

The LORD was pleased that Solomon made this request. So God said to him: "Because you have asked for this—not for a long life for yourself, nor for riches, nor for the life of your enemies, but for understanding so that you may know what is right—I do as you requested. I give you a heart so wise and understanding that there has never been anyone like you up to now, and after you there will come no one to equal you."

The Responsorial Psalm Psalm 119:57, 72, 76-77, 127-130

R. Lord, I love your commands.

I have said, O LORD, that my part is to keep your words.
The law of your mouth is to me more precious than thousands of gold and silver pieces.

R. Lord, I love your commands.

Let your kindness comfort me
according to your promise to your servants.
Let your compassion come to me that I may live,
for your law is my delight.

R. Lord, I love your commands.

For I love your command
more than gold, however fine.
For in all your precepts I go forward;
every false way I hate.

R. Lord, I love your commands.

Wonderful are your decrees;
therefore I observe them.
The revelation of your words sheds light,
giving understanding to the simple.

R. Lord, I love your commands.

Second Reading Romans 8:28-30

Brothers and sisters: We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose. For those he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, so that he might be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters. And those he predestined he also called; and those he called he also justified; and those he justified he also glorified.

Gospel Matthew 13:44-52

Jesus said to his disciples: "The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant searching for fine pearls. When he finds a pearl of great price, he goes and sells all that he has and buys it. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net thrown into the sea, which collects fish of every kind. When it is full they haul it ashore and sit down to put what is good into buckets. What is bad they throw away. Thus it will be at the end of the age. The angels will go out and separate the wicked from the righteous and throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.

"Do you understand all these things?" They answered, "Yes." And he replied, "Then every scribe who has been instructed in the kingdom of heaven is like the head of a household who brings from his storeroom both the new and the old."
