Pastoral Scene

St. Benedict Catholic School

We welcome 472 students to our 2023-2024 school year! Both of our campuses are off to a strong start and we look forward to an exciting year ahead! Our theme for this school year is SOAR - Safety-Ownership-Achievements-Respect! Together, our students and staff will work on lessons and projects that will help them SOAR through the school year!

We began our year with updates and improvements! We have updated our STEM lab and Library. These new spaces will provide our students with state-of-the-art equipment and furnishings that will enhance their learning.

Additional cameras have also been installed at both campuses. We have a total of 25 cameras at the main campus and Early Learning Center. Cameras are now located at all entrances at the main campus and we will provide additional cameras at our Early Learning Center this year.

Our faith has always been at the forefront of why we do what we do. We are excited to continue our weekly school Mass and prayer services throughout the year. We are excited to add grade-level Mass to our faith formation experiences this year. Hospitality Weekends at St. Martin of Tours and St. Monica Parishes will continue to occur monthly. Students are excited to greet parishioners and share a gift with them! We encourage parishioners to get to know our students before and after Mass.

May God continue to bless us as we move into our 12th year at St. Benedict Catholic School! We are grateful for your continued support, prayers, and encouragement!

A huge IMIM THANK YOU to members of St Monica Church for their generous donation of money and hundreds of household and personal care items that were received at the Party at the Pavilion event. These items have started to be distributed to those we serve. Thanks also to Father John Mullee and his parish staff for their assistance in making this happen. An example of generous donors helping to "MAKE THE IMPOSSIBLE, POSSIBLE"
God bless you and all you do in HIS name.

The St. Monica Summer Series Presents:

PARTY AT THE PAVILION

THANK YOU!

What a season we had with Party at the Pavilion this year!

We would like to thank everyone who planned, shopped for necessary items, all the required paperwork/signs/permits, etc., booked the bands, helped set-up/take down, the volunteers at the event, and all of our parishioners who came out and enjoyed a beautiful evening outside.

We cannot do this without the help of everyone!

Keep your eye out for the season return in 2024!

Watch future bulletins for the final results of your generosity.

Please plan on joining the fun next year.

WHERE DOES IT SAY THAT?

THIS CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT...

THREATENS PARENTAL RIGHTS

By using "individual" instead of adult or woman, anyone under the age of 18 could have an abortion or make any other reproductive decision without their parents' consent or notification.

PUTS WOMEN AT RISK

Current Ohio laws* require abortion providers to explain procedure risks and ensure access to hospital transfer if needed. These health and safety standards could be seen as a "burden" and be eliminated, making it even less safe for women seeking an abortion.

ALLOWS ABORTIONS THROUGH 9 MONTHS OF PREGNANCY

In U.S. law, "health" includes age or physical, emotional, or psychological well-being. This means a woman's age or emotional health could be cited to justify aborting a full-term baby. An abortion-providing physician would decide when a baby could survive outside the womb, leaving no clear protections for preborn children.

IS MISLEADING

Referring to "miscarriage care" promotes a myth that a "right to abortion" is necessary to preserve care for miscarriages and ectopic pregnancies. This is false. Catholic hospitals have always provided comprehensive miscarriage care and will continue to do so regardless of the outcome of this vote.

ARTICLE I, SECTION 22

The Right to Reproductive Freedom with Protections for Health and Safety

1. Every individual has a right to make and carry out one's own reproductive decisions, including but not limited to decisions on contraception, fertility treatment, continuing one's own pregnancy, miscarriage care, and abortion.
2. The State shall not, directly or indirectly, burden, penalize, prohibit, interfere with, or discriminate against either an individual's voluntary exercise of this right or a person or entity that assists an individual exercising this right, unless the State demonstrates that it is using the least restrictive means to advance the individual's health in accordance with widely accepted and evidence-based standards of care.
3. However, abortion may be prohibited after fetal viability. But in no case may such an abortion be prohibited if in the professional judgment of the pregnant patient's treating physician it is necessary to protect the pregnant patient's life or health.
4. As used in this Section, "Fetal viability" means "the point in a pregnancy when, in the professional judgment of the pregnant patient's treating physician, the fetus has a significant likelihood of survival outside the uterus with reasonable measures. This is determined on a case-by-case basis"; and "State" includes any governmental entity and political subdivision.
5. This Section is self-executing.

Entrance Chant 659 Open My Eyes

First Reading Isaiah 55:6-9

Seek the LORD while he may be found,
call him while he is near.
Let the scoundrel forsake his way,
and the wicked his thoughts;
let him turn to the LORD for mercy;
to our God, who is generous in forgiving.
For my thoughts are not your thoughts,
nor are your ways my ways, says the LORD.
As high as the heavens are above the earth,
so high are my ways above your ways
and my thoughts above your thoughts.

The Responsorial Psalm Psalm 145:2-3, 8-9, 17-18

R. The Lord is near to all who call upon him.

Every day will I bless you,
and I will praise your name forever and ever.
Great is the LORD and highly to be praised;
his greatness is unsearchable.

R. The Lord is near to all who call upon him.

The LORD is gracious and merciful,
slow to anger and of great kindness.
The LORD is good to all and compassionate toward all his works.

R. The Lord is near to all who call upon him.

The LORD is just in all his ways
and holy in all his works.
The LORD is near to all who call upon him,
to all who call upon him in truth.

R. The Lord is near to all who call upon him.

Second Reading Philippians 1:20c-24, 27a

Brothers and sisters: Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life or by death. For to me life is Christ, and death is gain. If I go on living in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me. And I do not know which I shall choose. I am caught between the two. I long to depart this life and be with Christ, for that is far better. Yet that I remain in the flesh is more necessary for your benefit.

Only, conduct yourselves in a way worthy of the gospel of Christ.

READINGS & SONGS

Gospel Matthew 20:1-16a

Jesus told his disciples this parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out at dawn to hire laborers for his vineyard. After agreeing with them for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard. Going out about nine o'clock, the landowner saw others standing idle in the marketplace, and he said to them, 'You too go into my vineyard, and I will give you what is just.' So they went off. And he went out again around noon, and around three o'clock, and did likewise. Going out about five o'clock, the landowner found others standing around, and said to them, 'Why do you stand here idle all day?' They answered, 'Because no one has hired us.' He said to them, 'You too go into my vineyard.' When it was evening the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, 'Summon the laborers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and ending with the first.' When those who had started about five o'clock came, each received the usual daily wage. So when the first came, they thought that they would receive more, but each of them also got the usual wage. And on receiving it they grumbled against the landowner, saying, 'These last ones worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us, who bore the day's burden and the heat.' He said to one of them in reply, 'My friend, I am not cheating you. Did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what is yours and go. What if I wish to give this last one the same as you? Or am I not free to do as I wish with my own money? Are you envious because I am generous?' Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last."

Offertory Chant 687 You Are Near

Communion Chant Lord, I Am Not Worthy

The image shows three staves of musical notation in treble clef with a common time signature (C). The lyrics are written below the notes. The first staff contains the lyrics: "Lord, I am not wor-thy, Lord, I am not wor-thy that". The second staff contains: "you should en-ter un-der my roof. On-ly say the word,". The third staff contains: "on-ly say the word and my soul shall be healed." The music consists of simple eighth and quarter notes.

Refrain text: Matthew 8:8, Lord, I am not worthy. Words & Music: © 2022, Fr. Joe Menkhaus, Fr. Connor Hetzel, Monica Menkhaus, Max Menkhaus.

Gathered at the altar of our God and King, we present ourselves. We are wounded sinners in need of grace; you restore our health.

As we eat your flesh sacrificed for us, we are made strong. As we drink your blood poured out for us, we are washed clean.

Body, blood, and soul and divinity, You give as gift to us. Now we become You whom we receive; In You we place our trust.
