Pastoral Scene

Time With the Blessed Sacrament

Where did summer go? Young People have returned to school and the fall TV programming has begun. This year marked the 22nd anniversary of the events of 9/11. The time, since this event which shocked the world, we continue to hear of further violence in the world. More and more we become aware of the importance of peace in the world. As we know, it must begin within our own being. In my discussion with individuals, I realize that many continue to hold anger in their hearts for many reasons. It is time to appreciate the present moment which we have been given. Holding onto the past hurts and so called “missed opportunities” only cloud our vision to seeing the hand of God now in our live. As we grow older and become aware of God’s presence in our lives, the twist and turns that have taken place are often chances for new discoveries.

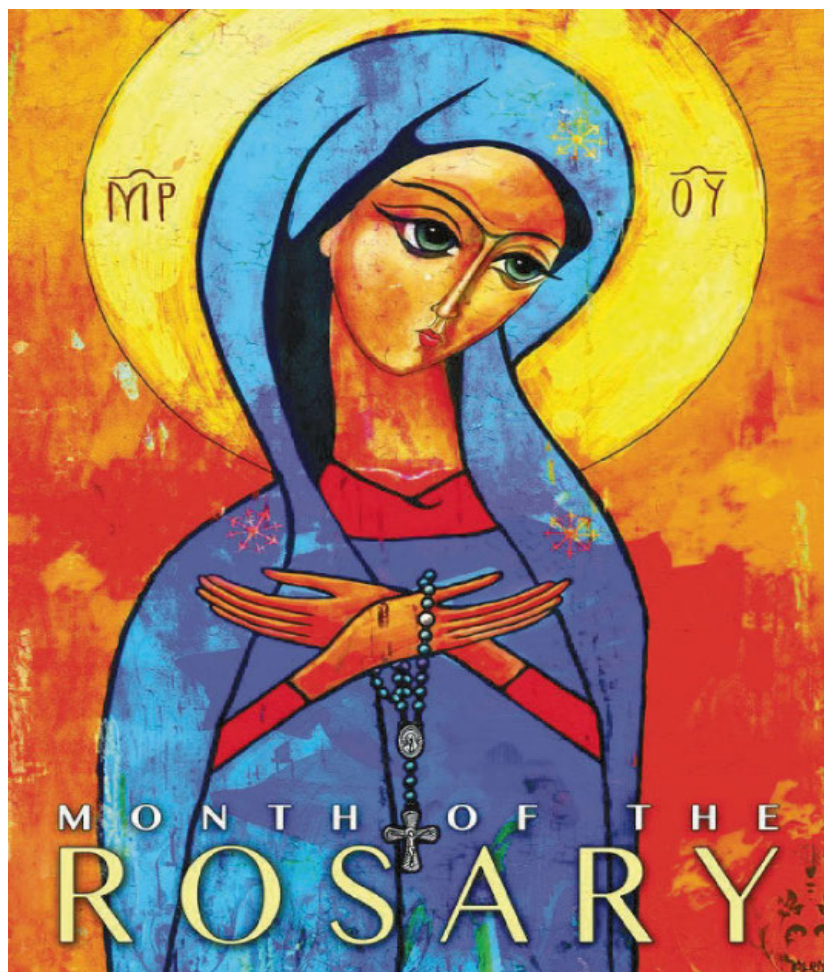

Finding ourselves in the Month of October, may we make use of the time before the Blessed Sacrament after the Monday 8AM Masses to place before the Lord our prayers and petitions. May the month of the Holy Rosary make us aware of Mary’s example of prayers and love for her Son.

Fr. Ted Marszal

MANDY CORSI – 216-408-0765

A big thank you to everyone who attended our September 21st meeting. It was wonderful seeing you all there and a good start to our year, (39 members/2 guests!). It was nice to share everyone's summer adventures! Thank you again to the ladies who have accepted the Executive Board positions this year – 1st Vice-President/Programs: Kathy Rowinski, 2nd Vice-President: Sr. Joyce Hollkamp, Recording Secretary: Marva Drozell, Corresponding Secretary: Marlyn Praznik, and Treasurer: Mary Lu Peterre -- and thank you all who accepted a standing committee position! Great job by everyone!

Sue Medvetz has done a wonderful job getting the Peterson Nut Sale going again this year. If you didn't get an order form at the meeting, stop in the Parish Office to pick one up. We have about a month to get our final orders in at our October meeting, but turning in early is always helpful. I hope everyone will do their best, as you always do, to make this fundraiser a great success. Orders will be ready for pick up November 15th just in time for the holidays! Also, in October we will celebrate "New Membership Month". It would be great to welcome some new ladies to our Guild Family. Just a simple invitation to join us for one of our meetings might be just what they have been waiting for. An invite to the ladies of Saint Martin of Tours was posted in their bulletin the weekend of September 16th -17th and 23rd -24th to come join us at a meeting. They can see for themselves what a welcoming, faith-filled and warm group of ladies we are! As a reminder, the Mass for all Guild members (living and deceased) will be held on Sunday, October 1st at the 10:45 Mass, Fr. Mullee will install the Guild Executive Board Officers. Please try to attend this Mass, we will have the first 3 pews reserved for members and we will process in.

Hope to see you all at the October meeting! Our Speaker, Father Luigi Miola, Pastor at Saint Martin of Tours will share his growing up in Little Italy, Faith, Family & Friends. Refreshment break will be pizza!

God's Peace and Blessings to you and yours this beautiful time of year,

Mandy

Entrance Chant 851 Morning Has Broken

First Reading Isaiah 5:1-7

Let me now sing of my friend,
my friend's song concerning his vineyard.
My friend had a vineyard
on a fertile hillside;
he spaded it, cleared it of stones,
and planted the choicest vines;
within it he built a watchtower,
and hewed out a wine press.
Then he looked for the crop of grapes,
but what it yielded was wild grapes.

Now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and people of Judah,
judge between me and my vineyard:
What more was there to do for my vineyard
that I had not done?
Why, when I looked for the crop of grapes,
did it bring forth wild grapes?
Now, I will let you know
what I mean to do with my vineyard:
take away its hedge, give it to grazing,
break through its wall, let it be trampled!
Yes, I will make it a ruin:
it shall not be pruned or hoed,
but overgrown with thorns and briars;
I will command the clouds
not to send rain upon it.
The vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel,
and the people of Judah are his cherished plant;
he looked for judgment, but see, bloodshed!
for justice, but hark, the outcry!

The Responsorial Psalm Psalm 80:9, 12-16, 19-20

R. The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

A vine from Egypt you transplanted;
you drove away the nations and planted it.
It put forth its foliage to the Sea,
its shoots as far as the River.

R. The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

Why have you broken down its walls,
so that every passer-by plucks its fruit,
The boar from the forest lays it waste,
and the beasts of the field feed upon it?

READINGS & SONGS

Once again, O LORD of hosts,
look down from heaven, and see;
take care of this vine,
and protect what your right hand has planted,
the son of man whom you yourself made strong.

R. The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

Then we will no more withdraw from you;
give us new life, and we will call upon your name.
O LORD, God of hosts, restore us;
if your face shine upon us, then we shall be saved.

R. The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

Second Reading      Philippians 4:6-9

Brothers and sisters: Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God. Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me. Then the God of peace will be with you.

Gospel      Matthew 21:33-43

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people: "Hear another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a hedge around it, dug a wine press in it, and built a tower. Then he leased it to tenants and went on a journey. When vintage time drew near, he sent his servants to the tenants to obtain his produce. But the tenants seized the servants and one they beat, another they killed, and a third they stoned. Again he sent other servants, more numerous than the first ones, but they treated them in the same way. Finally, he sent his son to them, thinking, 'They will respect my son.' But when the tenants saw the son, they said to one another, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and acquire his inheritance.' They seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What will the owner of the vineyard do to those tenants when he comes?" They answered him, "He will put those wretched men to a wretched death and lease his vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the proper times." Jesus said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures:

The stone that the builders rejected
has become the cornerstone;
by the Lord has this been done,
and it is wonderful in our eyes?

Therefore, I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that will produce its fruit."
