Praying for the Dead Nov 2023

Beginning in November, the celebration of All Saints and All Souls reminds us to look at the full view of the Communion of Saints. These days remind us of our connectedness with those who have gone before us in the sleep of peace.

St. Monica, our Patroness, reminded her son, St. Augustine who was distressed that she would be buried in a foreign country, not to worry about where her mortal remains were buried. She was more concerned about being remembered at the altar of the Lord, that is to make sure that Masses were offered for her soul. Even Saint Monica knew that she needed prayers to assist her on her final journey to God, and knew she that there was no greater prayer than the Sacrifice of the Mass.

This truth of our Faith, namely our union and communion with those who have died, encourages us when we feel alone and oftentimes forgotten to realize that our memory holds much to support and help us. These memories are important, not only personally, but to share with members of the family especially the younger generation. I remember saying how I wished I had asked my grandparents and their contemporaries more about their early lives in Europe and their struggles coming to America.

We cannot go back in time, but we can have the memories as a foundation to the present. Now we often take the place of older relatives who we remember as children, so that we can pass on those happenings which supported us and where we experienced love and care. The feasts of All Saints and All Souls takes on more meaning each year as we celebrate them, bringing us closer to the true reality of God and why He made us.

During the month of November, the custom of praying for the dead with the ‘All Souls Intentions’ will be remembered not only on All Souls Day but during the Month of November. All Souls Day envelopes are in your November packet of envelopes and located at the doors of the Church.

OTHER INFORMATION

Dear Friends in Christ,

Please review the annual information on our parish that will open our eyes on ways we can grow together as one Body in Christ. In the coming weeks, I will share an initiative at St Monica, in partnership with Our Sunday Visitor, to grow as a community in living the Gospel centered on Christ. This will be an exciting opportunity for us to grow both personally and communally in our relationship with Christ and will offer a roadmap that will strengthen our financial foundation, so that we can continue the Mission Christ calls all the baptized to; “Christians must be to the world what the soul is to the body” [Letter to Diognetus]. — Lumen Gentium, 38.

Entrance Chant 598 Sing a New Song (Schutte)

First Reading Isaiah 45:1, 4-6

Thus says the LORD to his anointed, Cyrus, whose right hand I grasp,
subduing nations before him,
and making kings run in his service,
opening doors before him
and leaving the gates unbarred:
For the sake of Jacob, my servant,
of Israel, my chosen one,
I have called you by your name,
giving you a title, though you knew me not.
I am the LORD and there is no other,
there is no God besides me.
It is I who arm you, though you know me not,
so that toward the rising and the setting of the sun
people may know that there is none besides me.
I am the LORD, there is no other.

The Responsorial Psalm Psalm 96:1, 3-5, 7-10

R. Give the Lord glory and honor.

Sing to the LORD a new song;
sing to the LORD, all you lands.
Tell his glory among the nations;
among all peoples, his wondrous deeds.

R. Give the Lord glory and honor.

For great is the LORD and highly to be praised;
awesome is he, beyond all gods.
For all the gods of the nations are things of nought,
but the LORD made the heavens.

R. Give the Lord glory and honor.

Give to the LORD, you families of nations,
give to the LORD glory and praise;
give to the LORD the glory due his name!
Bring gifts, and enter his courts.

R. Give the Lord glory and honor.

Worship the LORD, in holy attire;
tremble before him, all the earth;
say among the nations: The LORD is king,
he governs the peoples with equity.

R. Give the Lord glory and honor.

READINGS & SONGS

Second Reading 1 Thessalonians 1:1-5b

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy to the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: grace to you and peace. We give thanks to God always for all of you, remembering you in our prayers, unceasingly calling to mind your work of faith and labor of love and endurance in hope of our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father, knowing, brothers and sisters loved by God, how you were chosen. For our gospel did not come to you in word alone, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with much conviction.

Gospel Matthew 22:15-21

The Pharisees went off and plotted how they might entrap Jesus in speech. They sent their disciples to him, with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are a truthful man and that you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. And you are not concerned with anyone's opinion, for you do not regard a person's status. Tell us, then, what is your opinion: Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?" Knowing their malice, Jesus said, "Why are you testing me, you hypocrites? Show me the coin that pays the census tax." Then they handed him the Roman coin. He said to them, "Whose image is this and whose inscription?" They replied, "Caesar's." At that he said to them, "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."
