Pastoral Scene

Hired for the Vineyard

The parable of the vineyard workers is one of my favorites to read and pray over, but one of the most difficult parables to use with teenagers. As you know, teenagers have a strong sense of justice and fairness. I have taught them most of my life, and they absolutely bristle when they even suspect an unfair situation, such as sharing a consequence they did not cause.

The parable of the vineyard workers is not about hours worked and the salary earned; it is all about the unfailing love of God for each of us as we live our lives. Okay, I can hear you asking where did she get that idea, but my view of the vineyard’s meaning may be better explained by the following story.

In the late sixties, a Gangland hit man was in a shootout in Boston, and was left dying in the street. He was a Catholic, and asked for a priest who came, heard the gangster’s good confession, administered the Last Rites, and stayed with him until he died. The priest was asked if the hit man would have any chance of going to heaven. He replied that the man might require a long time in purgatory, but having made a good confession, would go to heaven, and made the comment, “just as Saint Francis would”

The newspapers in Boston had a field day over the priest’s answer. It doesn’t seem justified, does it! But, consider the Good Thief – Saint Dismas is what we call him – Jesus Himself promised this thief entrance into heaven despite his sinful life., and I remind people, the Good Thief was never asked to make his confession while crucified on a cross.

The story of the vineyard is not about what is just, expected, or based on how many hours we worked, but all about how we reached out to help our neighbor whom we can see. We are asked by God to serve others with love. By extending that love to those in our lives, we honor and please God who forgives our sins, loves us without measure, and longs to bring us into Heaven when our work in the vineyard is completed.

Continuing to work in the Vineyard,
Sister Helene

Entrance Chant 686 How Can I Keep from Singing

First Reading Malachi 1:14b – 2:2b, 8-10

A great King am I, says the LORD of hosts, and my name will be feared among the nations.
And now, O priests, this commandment is for you:
If you do not listen,
if you do not lay it to heart,
to give glory to my name, says the LORD of hosts,
I will send a curse upon you and of your blessing I will make a curse.
You have turned aside from the way,
and have caused many to falter by your instruction;
you have made void the covenant of Levi,
says the LORD of hosts.
I, therefore, have made you contemptible and base before all the people,
since you do not keep my ways,
but show partiality in your decisions.
Have we not all the one father?
Has not the one God created us?
Why then do we break faith with one another,
violating the covenant of our fathers?

The Responsorial Psalm Psalm 131:1-3

R. In you, Lord, I have found my peace.

O LORD, my heart is not proud,
nor are my eyes haughty;
I busy not myself with great things,
nor with things too sublime for me.

R. In you, Lord, I have found my peace.

Nay rather, I have stilled and quieted
my soul like a weaned child.
Like a weaned child on its mother's lap,
so is my soul within me.

R. In you, Lord, I have found my peace.

O Israel, hope in the LORD,
both now and forever.

R. In you, Lord, I have found my peace.

READINGS & SONGS

Second Reading 1 Thessalonians 2:7b-9, 13

Brothers and sisters: We were gentle among you, as a nursing mother cares for her children. With such affection for you, we were determined to share with you not only the gospel of God, but our very selves as well, so dearly beloved had you become to us. You recall, brothers and sisters, our toil and drudgery. Working night and day in order not to burden any of you, we proclaimed to you the gospel of God.

And for this reason we too give thanks to God unceasingly, that, in receiving the word of God from hearing us, you received not a human word but, as it truly is, the word of God, which is now at work in you who believe.

Gospel Matthew 23:1-12

Jesus spoke to the crowds and to his disciples, saying, "The scribes and the Pharisees have taken their seat on the chair of Moses. Therefore, do and observe all things whatsoever they tell you, but do not follow their example. For they preach but they do not practice. They tie up heavy burdens hard to carry and lay them on people's shoulders, but they will not lift a finger to move them. All their works are performed to be seen. They widen their phylacteries and lengthen their tassels. They love places of honor at banquets, seats of honor in synagogues, greetings in market-places, and the salutation 'Rabbi.' As for you, do not be called 'Rabbi.' You have but one teacher, and you are all brothers. Call no one on earth your father; you have but one Father in heaven. Do not be called 'Master'; you have but one master, the Christ. The greatest among you must be your servant. Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted."
