Pastoral Scene

2nd Sunday in Advent 2023

The person of John the Baptist is featured this Sunday as he prepares the way for the promised one of Israel. A person quite different from Jesus but a person who is the “bridge” in bringing to the world the fulfillment of the promise found through the prophets. This week’s gospel presents the beginning of Jesus in his public ministry. It is a reminder of our own adult faith and commitment to the promised Messiah and that it deepened each year during our Advent journey to celebrating the birth of Christ.

The Virgin Mary and John the Baptist are two important figures of the Advent Season. They both exemplify qualities to be followed. Mary’s receptiveness to God’s grace as she pondered all which God had done in her life and John the Baptist who followed his call to prepare the way of the Lord. The qualities of contemplative prayer and seeking our true call in life are shown to us in these two holy people.

A very practical way of living this message is to be open to the guests who visit

St. Monica Church during these days. It is true that this hospitality should be practiced all year long but particularly during the Advent and Christmas season. I have recently met people from out of State and from other countries who have found their way to our Church. They remarked about the church’s beauty both in the structure and in the people they encountered. May we continue to bring this beacon of light to all who enter this holy place.

Tuesday, December 12, is the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe. Our Lady appeared to a 57 year old Indian widower by the name of Juan Diego who lived in a small village near Mexico City. On a Saturday morning, December 9, 1531 Mary appeared to him and gave him a message for the Bishop. Three days later she appeared again this time providing him roses to be put in his cape or tilma. Returning to the Bishop he opened his cape and behold, not only the roses, but an image of Mary dressed in traditional Indian dress.

Because of the close link between the Church in Mexico and the Church in the United States, the feast is celebrated as she is called today: the Patroness of the Americas. She is depicted as a woman with child, she is a reminder of respecting life in all its stages. This important focus fits into our celebration of God's life in us and the Holy Season of Advent in which we journey.

A final note, we continue Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament after Monday Masses. All are welcome to join us during the "Holy Half Hour".

Father Ted Marszal

MERRY CHRISTMAS

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

MANDY CORSI - 216-408-0765

Dear Guild Members,

I hope everyone had a blessed Thanksgiving with your families. It is now time for Advent, and preparing for Christmas. We get so involved in decorating our homes, putting up the Christmas tree, baking cookies, writing cards, shopping and wrapping presents that we need to take a breath and slow down for the real reason for the Season. That God gave us the most perfect Gift~ His Son, Jesus Christ. That is what we celebrate the most. What a beautiful time of year of celebration for this reason!

I hope you enjoyed our speaker Debbie Makowski at the November meeting's presentation on Nutrition. She called me afterwards and said she enjoyed presenting to such a lovely group of ladies. A big "Thank You" to Sue Medvetz for another successful Peterson Nut Sale! Great Job! Hoping to see all of you at our December Christmas Party/Meeting. We will be playing our version of Bunco! Always a good time! Don't forget to bring 3 to 5 inexpensive wrapped gifts to exchange during the game!

God's Blessing to You and Yours,

Mandy

PROGRAM

KATHY ROWINSKI - 216-663-9852

I'd like to thank our November Guest Speaker, Debbie Makowski, Certified Nutritionist/Fitness and Food Coach, for a very informative presentation on Healthy Eating + Active Living (H.E.A.L) a holistic approach to wellbeing so you can feel and live your best life. We even had a quiz! She left us with these basic principles: By eating the 3 macros—protein, healthy fats, complex carbs—with each meal, eating 3 meals a day without snacking in between meals, and hydrating with water, the body maintains a healthy physique. Choose foods that serve your body and allow you to live in optimal health. Thank you, Debbie, your presentation was enjoyed by all.

Please join us on Thursday, December 14th, at 6:30 p.m. (one week earlier than usual) for our Christmas party/meeting when we will again play our version of "Bunco". We'll provide the dice; you provide the 3-5 inexpensive wrapped gifts. They can be something you got and want to re-gift, or something you didn't really need but couldn't pass up the sale. Hopefully you will get something just as nice in return, as well as have lots of fun. It is a fun and simple game—roll the dice and take a present, near the end of the game you take/swap/steal one from your neighbor. Looking forward to seeing you there!

Entrance Chant 274 O Come, O Come, Emmanuel

First Reading Isaiah 40:1-5, 9-11

Comfort, give comfort to my people, says your God.

Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and proclaim to her
that her service is at an end,
her guilt is expiated;
indeed, she has received from the hand of the LORD
double for all her sins.

A voice cries out:

In the desert prepare the way of the LORD!
Make straight in the wasteland a highway for our God!

Every valley shall be filled in,
every mountain and hill shall be made low;
the rugged land shall be made a plain,
the rough country, a broad valley.

Then the glory of the LORD shall be revealed,
and all people shall see it together;
for the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

Go up on to a high mountain,
Zion, herald of glad tidings;
cry out at the top of your voice,
Jerusalem, herald of good news!

Fear not to cry out
and say to the cities of Judah:
Here is your God!

Here comes with power
the Lord GOD,
who rules by his strong arm;
here is his reward with him,
his recompense before him.

Like a shepherd he feeds his flock;
in his arms he gathers the lambs,
carrying them in his bosom,
and leading the ewes with care.

The Responsorial Psalm Psalm 85:9-14

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

I will hear what God proclaims;
the LORD—for he proclaims peace to his people.
Near indeed is his salvation to those who fear him,
glory dwelling in our land.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

Kindness and truth shall meet;
justice and peace shall kiss.
Truth shall spring out of the earth,
and justice shall look down from heaven.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

The LORD himself will give his benefits;
our land shall yield its increase.
Justice shall walk before him,
and prepare the way of his steps.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

READINGS & SONGS

Second Reading 2 Peter 3:8-14

Do not ignore this one fact, beloved, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years and a thousand years like one day. The Lord does not delay his promise, as some regard “delay,” but he is patient with you, not wishing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance. But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then the heavens will pass away with a mighty roar and the elements will be dissolved by fire, and the earth and everything done on it will be found out.

Since everything is to be dissolved in this way, what sort of persons ought you to be, conducting yourselves in holiness and devotion, waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be dissolved in flames and the elements melted by fire. But according to his promise we await new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells. Therefore, beloved, since you await these things, be eager to be found without spot or blemish before him, at peace.

Gospel Mark 1:1-8

The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ the Son of God.

As it is written in Isaiah the prophet:

Behold, I am sending my messenger ahead of you;
he will prepare your way.

A voice of one crying out in the desert:

“Prepare the way of the Lord,
make straight his paths.”

John the Baptist appeared in the desert proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. People of the whole Judean countryside and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem were going out to him and were being baptized by him in the Jordan River as they acknowledged their sins. John was clothed in camel’s hair, with a leather belt around his waist. He fed on locusts and wild honey. And this is what he proclaimed: “One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.”
