

EMMY AWARD WINNER TO PERFORM THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. MARK AT ST. MONICA CHURCH ON SUNDAY, APRIL 2, 2017 AT 5:00PM

Emmy Award Winner Wayne S. Turney will perform the entire King James version of The Gospel According to Saint Mark at St. Monica Church on Sunday, April 2, 2017 at 5:00pm. Staged by award winning director Harper Jane McAdoo, this roughly two-hour program in entirety is more than a recitation. It is a unique blend of storytelling and drama. The performance is an opportunity to, in Turney's words, "combine my profession with a profession of faith." Turney has brought the full range of his considerable dramatic talents to this role, traveling the country for nearly 25 years performing Mark in churches and theatres.

Wayne S. Turney is well known to Cleveland audiences for his many years at the Cleveland Play House playing featured roles as varied as Custer and Scrooge. His favorite portrayal was Matthew (and just about everybody else) in Cotton Patch Gospel, with the Hotfoot Quartet. He was seen for nearly ten years every Saturday morning in Cleveland and several other cities across the country on the highly honored children's show, HICKORY HIDEOUT, for which he also served as staff writer and won an Emmy!

He has appeared as well with most major arts organizations in Cleveland including the Cleveland Pops, the Cleveland Orchestra, Cleveland Opera, Cleveland Institute of Music, Great Lakes Theatre Festival, and most recently with Actors Summit. He has appeared at theatres all across the country as well, notably Actors Theatre of Louisville, Hilberry Repertory Theatre, Woodstock Music Festival Theatre, Portland Opera, Michigan Opera Theatre, and many others.
